

- WDC organised two day National Conference titled ‘Women's quest for equality in India’ on 9th and 10th January 2015.

- The conference was inaugurated at the hands of ex-vice chancellor of University of Mumbai, Dr. Snehalata Deshmukh.

- Six parallel sessions of Paper Presentations.
- There were 51 papers out of which 45 were presented.
- The conference was attended by the delegates from all over India.
- Eminent personalities were invited as resource persons and chairpersons of different sessions.
- Few important of them are Dr. Vibhuti Patel, HoD Economics, SNTD University, Ms Mangala Narlikar, Ms Jyoti Mhapsekar , Harish Sadani and Bhimrao Gasti and Surekha Dalvi (Social activists)

- On 8th March 2016, WDC organised a play (मानाचा मुजरा).

- This play was written and directed by Prof. Tokekar and was based on the contribution of women in different movements in Maharashtra.
- The unique feature of this programme was that it was presented by 12 staff members.
- Prof. Suchitra Naik and Prof. Tokekar compered the program.

o

This programme was also presented in Dyansadhana College, Thane and was appreciated by students and teachers

On 29th July 2016, the paly was performed at Dnyansadhana College

- On 1st October 2016, WDC felicitated girl students from alumni who have excelled in different fields.

Street Plays and Action and Awareness day

