

Department of Library and Information Science
Report 2013-2014

MLIS course was started on 20th July 2013 and BLIS course was started on 1st August 2013. Seminars on Library Classification, Library Cataloguing were organized by Prof. (Mrs.) P. P. Joshi during the year.

As a part of study tour, students visited renowned libraries in Mumbai on 28th January 2014. They visited Libraries of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, International Institute of Population Studies and Indian Institute of Technology.

It is the practice of our department to organise various guest lecturers for our MLIS students. Lectures on “My SQL, Oracle, DBMS, Database Connectivity and Web Servers” . This year Mr. Dalveer Reel conducted guest lectures in various topics in the syllabus of MLIS in the month of October 2013. Mr Sandeep Bhavsar shared his practical experience on “Planning, Design & Implementation of ICT” in the month of February.